 - 21.4 where that member is removed from office under By-law 22,

whichever happens first.
- 22 Except where By-law 16 applies, the Strata Company may by special resolution remove and replace any member of the Council at any time and may, in the same or in a separate resolution, resolve who the replacement is to be until the next general meeting of the Strata Company. While there is a vacancy on the Council, the remaining members of the Council may continue to act unless the number of members is reduced below the minimum number fixed under these By-laws, in which case the continuing members may only act for the purpose of increasing the number of members of the Council or calling a general meeting of the Strata Company.
- 23 The continuing members of the Council may act notwithstanding any vacancy in the Council provided that there is a quorum of members to the Council. However, the continuing members of the Council may also appoint other Owners to fill any casual vacancy that may arise.
- 24 All acts done in good faith by the Council will, notwithstanding that it is afterwards discovered that there was some defect in the appointment or continuance in office of any member of the Council, be as valid as if that member had been duly appointed or had duly continued in office.

SCHEDULE 1 BY-LAWS

Act Prevails

- 1 If:
- 1.1 a provision in the Act conflicts with a provision in these By-laws; and
 - 1.2 the provision in the Act can not be amended by these By-laws,
- then the provision in the Act prevails to the extent of the inconsistency.

By-laws binding on others

- 2 Without limiting sections 42(6) and 42(7) of the Act, an Owner will ensure that its Occupiers comply with these By-laws in relation to their:
- 2.1 behaviour while present on its Lot or the Common Property; and
 - 2.2 use of either or both of its Lot or the Common Property.
- 3 In order to facilitate the operation of sections 42(6) and 42(7) of the Act, where the context permits, a reference in these By-laws to an Owner includes a reference to its Occupiers.

Indemnity for breach

- 4 An Owner will indemnify the Strata Company and each of its employees, agents, contractors, sub-contractors and other authorised representatives against any injury, harm, loss or damage suffered or incurred by them as a result of any breach of these By-laws by the Owner or any of its Occupiers.

Recovery of costs

- 5 Without limiting By-law 4, an Owner will pay on demand the whole of the Strata Company's costs (including strata manager fees, solicitor and own client costs) incurred in relation to any or all of the following:
- 5.1 recovering outstanding contributions levied by the Strata Company on that Owner pursuant to either or both sections 36 or 42 of the Act;

 - 5.3 making good any damage to the Common Property caused by the Owner; or
 - 5.4 all proceedings taken by the Strata Company against the Owner.
- 6 The costs referred to By-law 5 are recoverable by the Strata Company against the Owner as a liquidated debt and the Strata Company may take action for the recovery of those amounts in any court of competent jurisdiction.

Cost of Breach Notice

- 7 The Strata Manager may, in accordance with the management agreement between the Strata Company and the Strata Manager, charge the Strata Company for the issuing of a notice in relation to a breach of the By-laws.
- 8 Any costs incurred by the Strata Company to issue a notice in relation to a breach of the By-laws to an Owner shall be the responsibility of that Owner and will be recoverable in accordance with By-law 5.

Joint Liability

- 9 Without limiting section 36(6) of the Act if at the time a person becomes an Owner of a Lot, the former owner of that Lot owes money to the Strata Company in connection with its Lot, the new Owner will be jointly and severally liable with the former owner for payment of that money to the Strata Company and By-law 5 will apply in relation to the recovery of any outstanding money.

Penalties

- 10 For the purposes of section 42A of the Act but subject to By-laws 11 and 12, the Strata Company may, from time to time and in its discretion, determine at a duly convened general meeting of the Strata Company an appropriate penalty to impose on an Owner for a breach of these By-laws.
- 11 Any penalty determined under By-law 10 will not exceed the prescribed amount under the Act.
- 12 By-laws 10 and 11 do not relieve the Strata Company of its obligations under the Act regarding the enforcement of penalties.
